The Mi-Careme Dance and the Other

omings and Goings of Prominen Folks-Future and Past Events

The Mi-Careme cotillion last night was charming event, participated in by a company whose movements are always of social interest. The occasion brought back memories of the fine balls which used to be given years ago at Masonic Temple, when society was smaller than it is now and when dancing had about the only place worth talking about in the amusements of the winter. For last night's ball sixt couples subscribed, and the committee of arrangements was headed by Mrs. Charles H. Campbell, whose associates were Mrs J. C. Poor, Mrs. A. D. Addison, Miss Myer, Miss Miles, Miss Keats Rodgers, Mr. J. C Poor, Mr. C. H. Campbell and Mr. A. D.

Addison.

The ball room was decorated, and near the palm-lined stage the cotillion favors were fastened to green screens. The pretty trifles included baskets, fans, hats, flowers, flags, drums, etc. Refreshments were handed about during intervals and a well spread table was arranged in a side room.

Mrs. Wiles handsomely govered to blue Mrs. Miles, handsomely gowned in blue satin, was the hostess of the evening, and Colonel Michler led a very successful co-tillion. In Memoriam.

Gone, but not forgotten. In loving remembrance of our father, who twenty-two years an d six months ago to-died twenty-two years an a sig-day (March 10, 1839). BY HIS LOVING CHILDREN.

Oh, vacant is her big arm chair, Oh, vacant is her oig arm chair,
For our dear mether sits to longer there.
From door and window, perch and lawn,
The sound of that dear voice is gone,
And we who linger only know
How much we lost two years ago.

BY HER LOVING CHILDREN.

RABA. In loving remembrance of my dear mother, ELIZARETH RABA, who departed this life two years ago, March 10, 1897.

Oh, vacant is her big arm chair, For my dear mother sits no longer there; From door and window, porch and lawn, The sound of that dear voice is gone. And we who linger only know How much we lost two years ago.

BY HER SON AND DAUGHTER-IN-LAW, WILLIAM AND EVA.
